2. Ten offenses

The Ten Offenses to be avoided while chanting the holy names are as follows :

1st Offence: To blaspheme the devotees who have dedicated their lives in propagating the holy names of the Lord.

2nd Offence: To consider the names of demigods like Lord Shiva or Lord Brahma to be equal to or independent of the names of Lord Vishnu.

3rd Offence: To disobey the orders of the spiritual master.

4th Offence: To blaspheme the vedic literature or literature in pursuance to the vedic version.

5th Offence: To consider the glories of chanting Hare Krishna to be imagination.

6th Offence: To give some mundane interpretations to the holy names of the Lord.

7th Offence: To commit sinful activities on the strength of the holy names of the Lord

8th Offence: To consider the chanting of Hare Krishna as one of the auspicious ritualistic activities offered in the Vedas as fruitive activities -Karma kanda

9th Offence: To instruct a faithless person about the glories of the holy names

10th Offence: To not have complete faith in the chanting of the holy names and to maintain material attachments, even after understanding so many instructions on this matter. It is also an offense to remain inattentive while chanting.
